INSTRUCTIONS TO AUTHORS

CESifo Economic Studies is an economics journal circulated to a wide audience including governments, businesses, and policy-makers as well as academics and students. Authors should make every possible effort to avoid technicalities in the form of either terminology which will be unfamiliar to a general readership or mathematical presentations. Where specialist terminology is used, it should be defined clearly and examples of its application given. The use of mathematics should be avoided. Authors who do employ mathematics in their articles should ensure that it is a necessary component of their presentation which clarifies an unfamiliar concept. If mathematics is used, authors should restrict it to an appendix as much as possible.

Format. On the first manuscript page provide the title, names of all authors, affiliations, any footnotes to the title, address to which proofs are to be sent, a short running title, and both fax number and e-mail address of the author to be contacted.

Abstracts. Authors are asked to provide a short abstract in English, which should not exceed 100 words. Please supply up to five keywords, and the Journal of Economic Literature index number.

Submitting your paper. Once you have prepared your manuscript according to the instructions above please visit the online submission web site: <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/cesifo>

Refereeing. All articles submitted to the journal will be refereed.

For detailed Instructions to Authors, please visit the journal's website: <http://cesifo.oxfordjournals.org>

About CESifo Economic Studies

CESifo Economic Studies aims to bridge the gap between specialised research in economics and the interest of non-specialists. It publishes policy oriented articles written in a style accessible to all economists regardless of their specialisation
